YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO BY THEIR SIDE'S VIRTUAL ANNUAL MEETING

Saturday, November 6, 2021
10:00 am – 1:00 pm

REVISITING YOUR FUTURE PLANS

The past 18 months have highlighted the urgency of future planning like never before. Our meeting this year reflects these changing times: we are meeting virtually by Zoom because your safety is paramount. In concurrent sessions, speakers will address considerations for Estate Planning, and Sibling Advocacy. Attendance is free. We hope you will encourage siblings to attend.

Is Your Estate Plan Up to Date?

- ◆ How have Special Needs Trust (SNT) Rules and Laws changed?
- ◆ Benefits of self-funded vs 3rd party SNT
- ◆ Will an ABLÉ Account be needed in the future?

Presenter: Sage Hart, Esq., Estates and Special Needs Attorney with the O'Byrne Law Office.
Moderator: Mary Scott

Siblings: Starting the Conversation

- ◆ How does By Their Side work with siblings?
- ◆ Siblings: How can By Their Side best serve you?
- ◆ How do parents involve siblings in advocacy work: when and how to begin the conversation?

This discussion, facilitated by By Their Side sibling advocates, will address these key questions. Share what you know and learn from other siblings. Parents are welcome at this session.
Presenters: Joan Chevalier, Louise Bond Heck, and Calvin Simpson
Moderator: Kathy Vecchioni
